

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF BUCKMAN BILL

To Be Attacked in the State Courts.

FIGHT NOW ON TO THE FINISH

Lake City People Mad Because State Board of Education Would Not Donate Entire Equipment of University. Refusal to Admit Student Ground.

The following appears in The Times-Union of 17th inst. under a Tallahassee date line:

"Judge Arch Henry of Lake City is here in consultation with Attorney-General Ellis. The citizens of Lake City, whom he represents, will probably institute legal proceedings to test the constitutionality of the Buckman bill.

"The refusal of the State Board of Education to convey the equipment of the University of Florida, as agreed at a meeting of the joint boards, July 24, is the cause of great dissatisfaction."

It has been understood by the people of Gainesville for some time that the Lake City people would contest the constitutionality of the Buckman Bill, their pretext for doing so being the refusal of President Sledd of the State University to admit a student who was not qualified under the provisions of the Buckman law.

The fight cannot commence too soon to suit the people of Gainesville, all of whom are anxious to have the question settled. The people of Lake City, that is the masses, are also equally anxious for a final settlement of the constitutionality of the law, and it is to be hoped that Judge Henry will no longer delay the instituting of legal proceedings in the matter, for no one at all acquainted with the situation ever doubted that it was the intention of certain Lake Cityites to do otherwise from the moment they were caught in the trap which they had set for Gainesville, Bartow, Tallahassee and DeFuniak.

Should the courts decide the law unconstitutional the various State schools would remain as they were prior to passage of the Buckman Bill, except that there would be no available funds with which to conduct them, and Governor Broward would face the alternative of depriving the children of Florida of the advantages of higher education for two years, or calling an extra session of the Legislature to make appropriation for operating the University and other State schools.

"Lay on MacDuff, and damned be he who first cries 'hold, enough.'"

A Pleasant Reception.

The members of the Earnest Workers' Society of the Presbyterian church were tendered a very pleasant reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Merchant Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Merchant, the guest of honor being Miss Ophelia Gregory of Ocheesee, a former resident of this city and the first president of the society.

Nothing was omitted by the hostess calculated to make the occasion a happy social function—as well as a meeting of the members of the society, and the large number present was entertained in a manner befitting the occasion. Refreshments were served and all acknowledged the occasion one long to be remembered.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better, and continued to improve until I was entirely well." J. W. McCollum & Co.

GODFREY-NEWTON WEDDING.

Solemnized at Madison, Ga.—A Brilliant Event.

Alachua, October 17.—Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Godfrey returned home on Monday from Madison, Ga., where on Thursday, October 12th, they were united in marriage. Mr. Godfrey is the popular cashier of the Bank of Alachua, a sterling young business man, and his many friends accord him and bride a hearty welcome. The Atlanta Journal of Tuesday contained the following account of the nuptials: "The marriage of Miss Willie Ora Newton to Mr. Francis Bartow Godfrey was solemnized Thursday afternoon, Rev. W. LaPrade of Canton officiating.

"The entire first floor of 'Ivywood,' the beautiful country home of the bride, near Madison, was brilliantly lighted and decorated with bamboo, amalfax and potted plants.

"In the front parlor a color scheme of white and green was observed. During the ceremony the bride and groom stood under an arch of white tulle and amalfax from the center of which hung a yoke made of white violets and roses. "In the center of the dining room where a pink and white color scheme was carried out, stood a heart-shaped table made beautiful by bunches of pink tulle and ribbon and lighted candles with pink shades.

"Promptly at 2:30 o'clock, to the strains of the wedding march, the bridal party came down the broad stairway. First came Miss Agnes Godfrey, sister of the groom, and Miss Elizabeth Walton; then Miss Lula Walker and Miss Lucia Goddard of Griffin; Miss Mamie Cooper of Atlanta, and Miss Caroline Callaway; Miss Sims of Newnan, and Miss Sue Reid Walton; Miss Mary Walton Trammell and Miss Kitty Newton. These young ladies carried ropes of white tulle with which they formed an aisle from the foot of the steps to the altar. Next came the groom with his brother, Captain Erwin Godfrey, and then the bride with her maid of honor, Miss Annie Lucy Newton.

"During the ceremony a selection from Nevin was played by Miss Williams.

"The bride wore a charming going-away gown of dark blue velvet, with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Annie Lucy Newton, sister of the bride, wore white crepe de chine and carried pink roses. The wedding gifts which were seen in the library were numerous and handsome.

"The bride is the eldest daughter of Hon. John T. Newton of Morgan county, and is very popular in Madison and throughout the State. The groom is the youngest son of Mrs. Molly Walton Godfrey, and is a young man of prominence in social and business circles. For some time he has been connected with a bank in Alachua, Fla., where the young people will make their home.

"Assisting Mrs. Newton in receiving and entertaining her guests were Mrs. Eliza Goshman, Mrs. W. P. Walker, Mrs. W. H. Burnett, Mrs. Porter Rogers, Miss Lucie Newton."

Full of Tragic Meaning

Are these lines from J. H. Simmons of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At all druggists; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

MELROSE MELANGE.

Improvements at the Huffman House People Returning.

Melrose, October 16.—Mrs. M. S. M. Caldwell and C. P. Huffman have returned from their visit. North; other new arrivals are Chas. Labor and wife and Miss J. Labor of Rhine, Kas.

W. S. Yearwood and family have moved into the cottage formerly occupied by Mrs. Corpew.

The cemetery working last Monday was attended by a large crowd, who did their work in a first-class manner.

H. Jackson is changing his pumping engine from two-inch to six-inch cylinder, also putting in a three inch supply pipe, these changes being necessary owing to the demand for water, which is very fine and clear.

O. O. Husband has returned from Palatka, having been on the jury during the past week.

The Huffman House is being put in first-class order for the coming season, the first guests being due November 1st. Quite a number of rooms are already engaged by their regular winter visitors.

Don't be Imposed Upon.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Quiet Wedding.

Monday afternoon, October 16 h, at half-past four o'clock, Dr. William Herbert Powers and Miss Violet Harris were quietly married in this city, Rev. L. W. Moore officiating.

The groom is a prominent and popular young physician and the bride the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris.—Ocala Banner.

Dr. Powers is known to many people in Gainesville as one of Ocala's popular physicians, while his charming bride has a host of young friends in this city who join The Sun in wishing them a happy married life.

Makes Homely Women Pretty.

No woman, no matter how regular her features may be, can be called pretty, if her complexion is bad. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and clears away blotched complexions by stimulating the liver and bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe, and is mild and pleasant to take. Remember the name Orino and refuse to accept any substitute. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Gainesville Girls.

Misses Pearl Whetstone, Gertrude Westgaard, Lena Baird, Carrie Dean and Eva Dean, a body of pretty Gainesville girls attending the Female College in this city, took in the State House yesterday, and the way the young bachelor clerks danced around explaining to them how the State government was run, proved quite conclusively that their visit was appreciated.—Tallahassee Daily Capital.
